“Cluain Ard” is a beautiful family home on private grounds ideally located close to a range of destinations and M7 Motorway

‘Cluain Ard’ is a magnificent family home situated on a 12 acre site in the scenic Village of Castletown, Co. Laois, within walking distance of the famous salmon weir bridge and a few hundred yards from Mountrath Golf Course.

Built in the late 1990s by the current owner, its elevated setting on Pilgrimhill provides unimpeded views of the surrounding countryside and of the Slieve Bloom Mountain range.

The property is approached via a recessed entrance with electric gates leading to a beech lined tarmac avenue with paddocks on either side. The mature gardens comprise lawns, a well-stocked rockery, mature shrubbery and a unique water feature.

The house provides 4,500 sq.ft of spacious well proportioned light filled accommodation presented in superb condition with a number of reception rooms and 5 bedrooms (3 ensuite) and ancillary spaces.

Castletown is a quiet well appointed village with a history of success in the National Tidy Towns competition. The River Nore which runs through the village affords relaxing river bank walks for those of a sedate disposition, while for the more energetic, the Slieve Bloom Hills are within easy reach, with their forest trails and panoramic views of the Irish Midlands.
