DUNDALK TOWN CENTRAL

DUNDALK TOWN CENTRE

Dundalk is situated in the North East region of the country, strategically located on the busiest economic corridor in Ireland, between Dublin and Belfast. The town of Dundalk is located on the M1 / N1 National Primary Route, equidistant between the two cities. Dublin and Belfast each lie approximately 85km from the town, whilst Drogheda is approximately 37km South, a drive time of circa 25 minutes. Dundalk is the administrative, business and shopping capital of the North East region and is poised to become Ireland's first new city of the 21st Century having been selected as a gateway centre for development under the Irish Government's National Spatial Strategy.

The Market Square Dundalk links the two main streets in the town notably Clanbrassil Street and Park Street.

The site faces onto the Long Walk and is within 200m of the Long Walk Shopping Centre, the main Post Office, the Bus Éireann depot and a 500 space surface car park.
