MOUNT STANNES

Welcome home to Mt St Annes.

Park Developments have transformed four sleepy acres of Milltown parkland and historic buildings into an exemplary residential environment that has become one of Dublin's most prestigious addresses.

The development of Mount St Annes combined the construction of new apartments and town houses with the careful restoration of a historic convent and school into luxury apartments, all set in four acres of serene grounds.

Now the opportunity to share in this vision has arrived with the release of a new phase. Maple Hall and Temple Court offer purchasers apartments and houses of the highest quality in a mature development close to the city centre.
