LOCATION

Birr (population approximately 5,000) is the second largest Town in Co. Offaly after Tullamore (population approximately 15,000). Birr is a designated Irish Heritage Town with a carefully preserved Georgian Heritage.

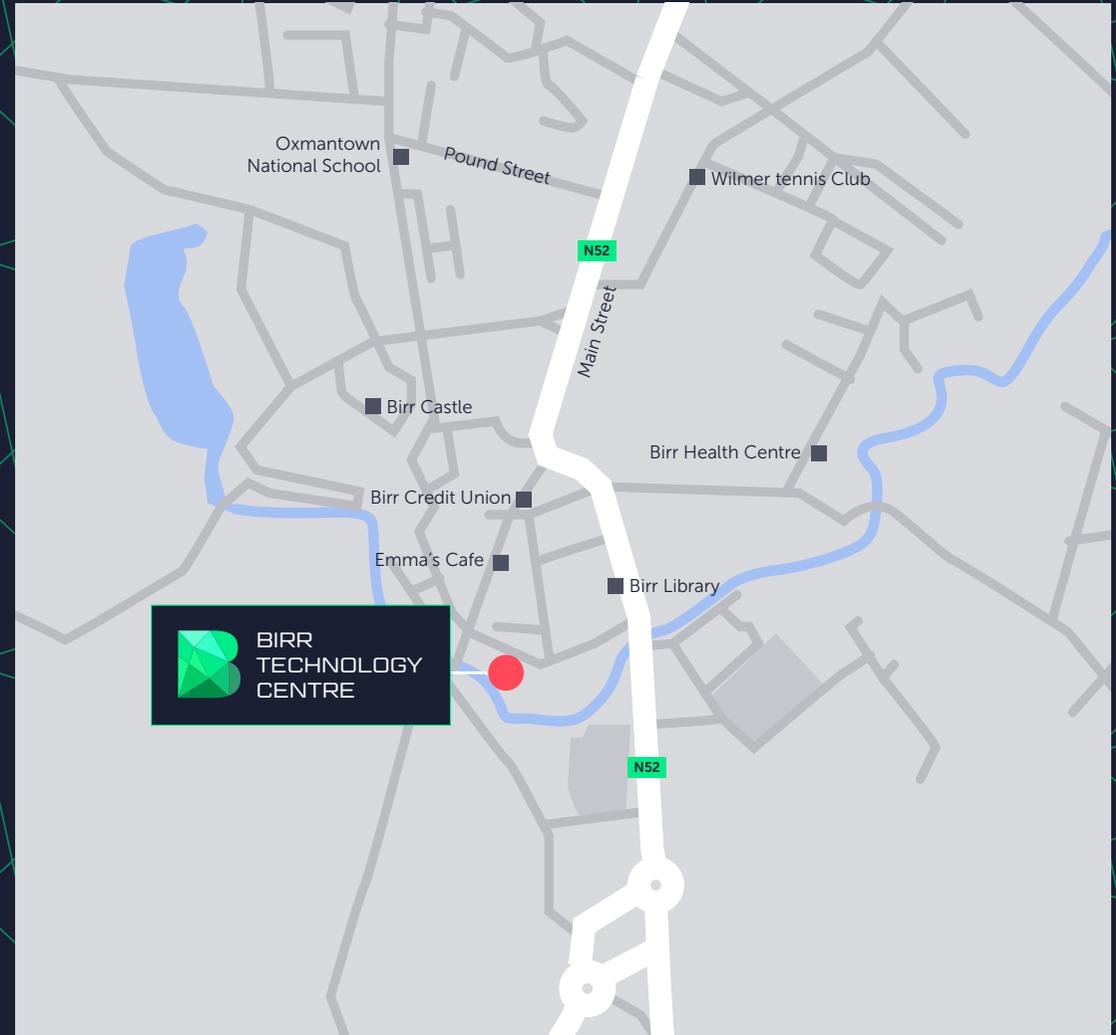

The town is known for Birr Castle and its gardens, home of the Parsons Family which was the largest telescope in the world for over 70 years. Birr Castle Gardens & Science Centre attracts tourists throughout the year.

Birr has beautiful Georgian terraces including Oxmantown Mall, which includes the recently restored Oxmantown Hall, now Birr Theatre. Tullamore (36 km) and Roscrea (Co. Tipperary) (16 km) are two large neighbouring towns with strong commercial base and diverse employment in the Agricultural, Meat Processing and Public Sector. Tullamore is the capital town of the county of Offaly, a central town in Ireland, located between Dublin and Galway. Birr is located 140 km from Dublin by Road, with good connectivity by the M7 and M6/M4 Routes.

Birr Technology Centre is located at Brendan Street in the centre of Birr adjacent to the Birr Town Park, and overlooking the Camcor River, the location is well suited for office use providing a high amenity location, with all the conveniences of a town centre location including on site car parking.
