Commuting Made Easy

Meadow Mill, Athy, has everything you need including a great transport network in the area. Meadow Mill's proximity to the M7 and M9 are a big advantage, with travel times to Dublin Airport and Dublin City Centre in under one hour. There are regular bus routes to local towns throughout Kildare and into Dublin. Church Road train station also provides great rail services for commuters. It is on the Dublin to Waterford line and there is a regular daily service to Heuston Station Dublin, or Carlow, Kilkenny, and Waterford directly.

Athy is a well-connected town that gets people where they want to go, fast. The recent opening of the Athy distributor road is a fantastic addition to the town. The scheme includes a 3.4km road and 5.8km walking and cycling infrastructure diverting traffic from the Main Street.

Athy Railway Station

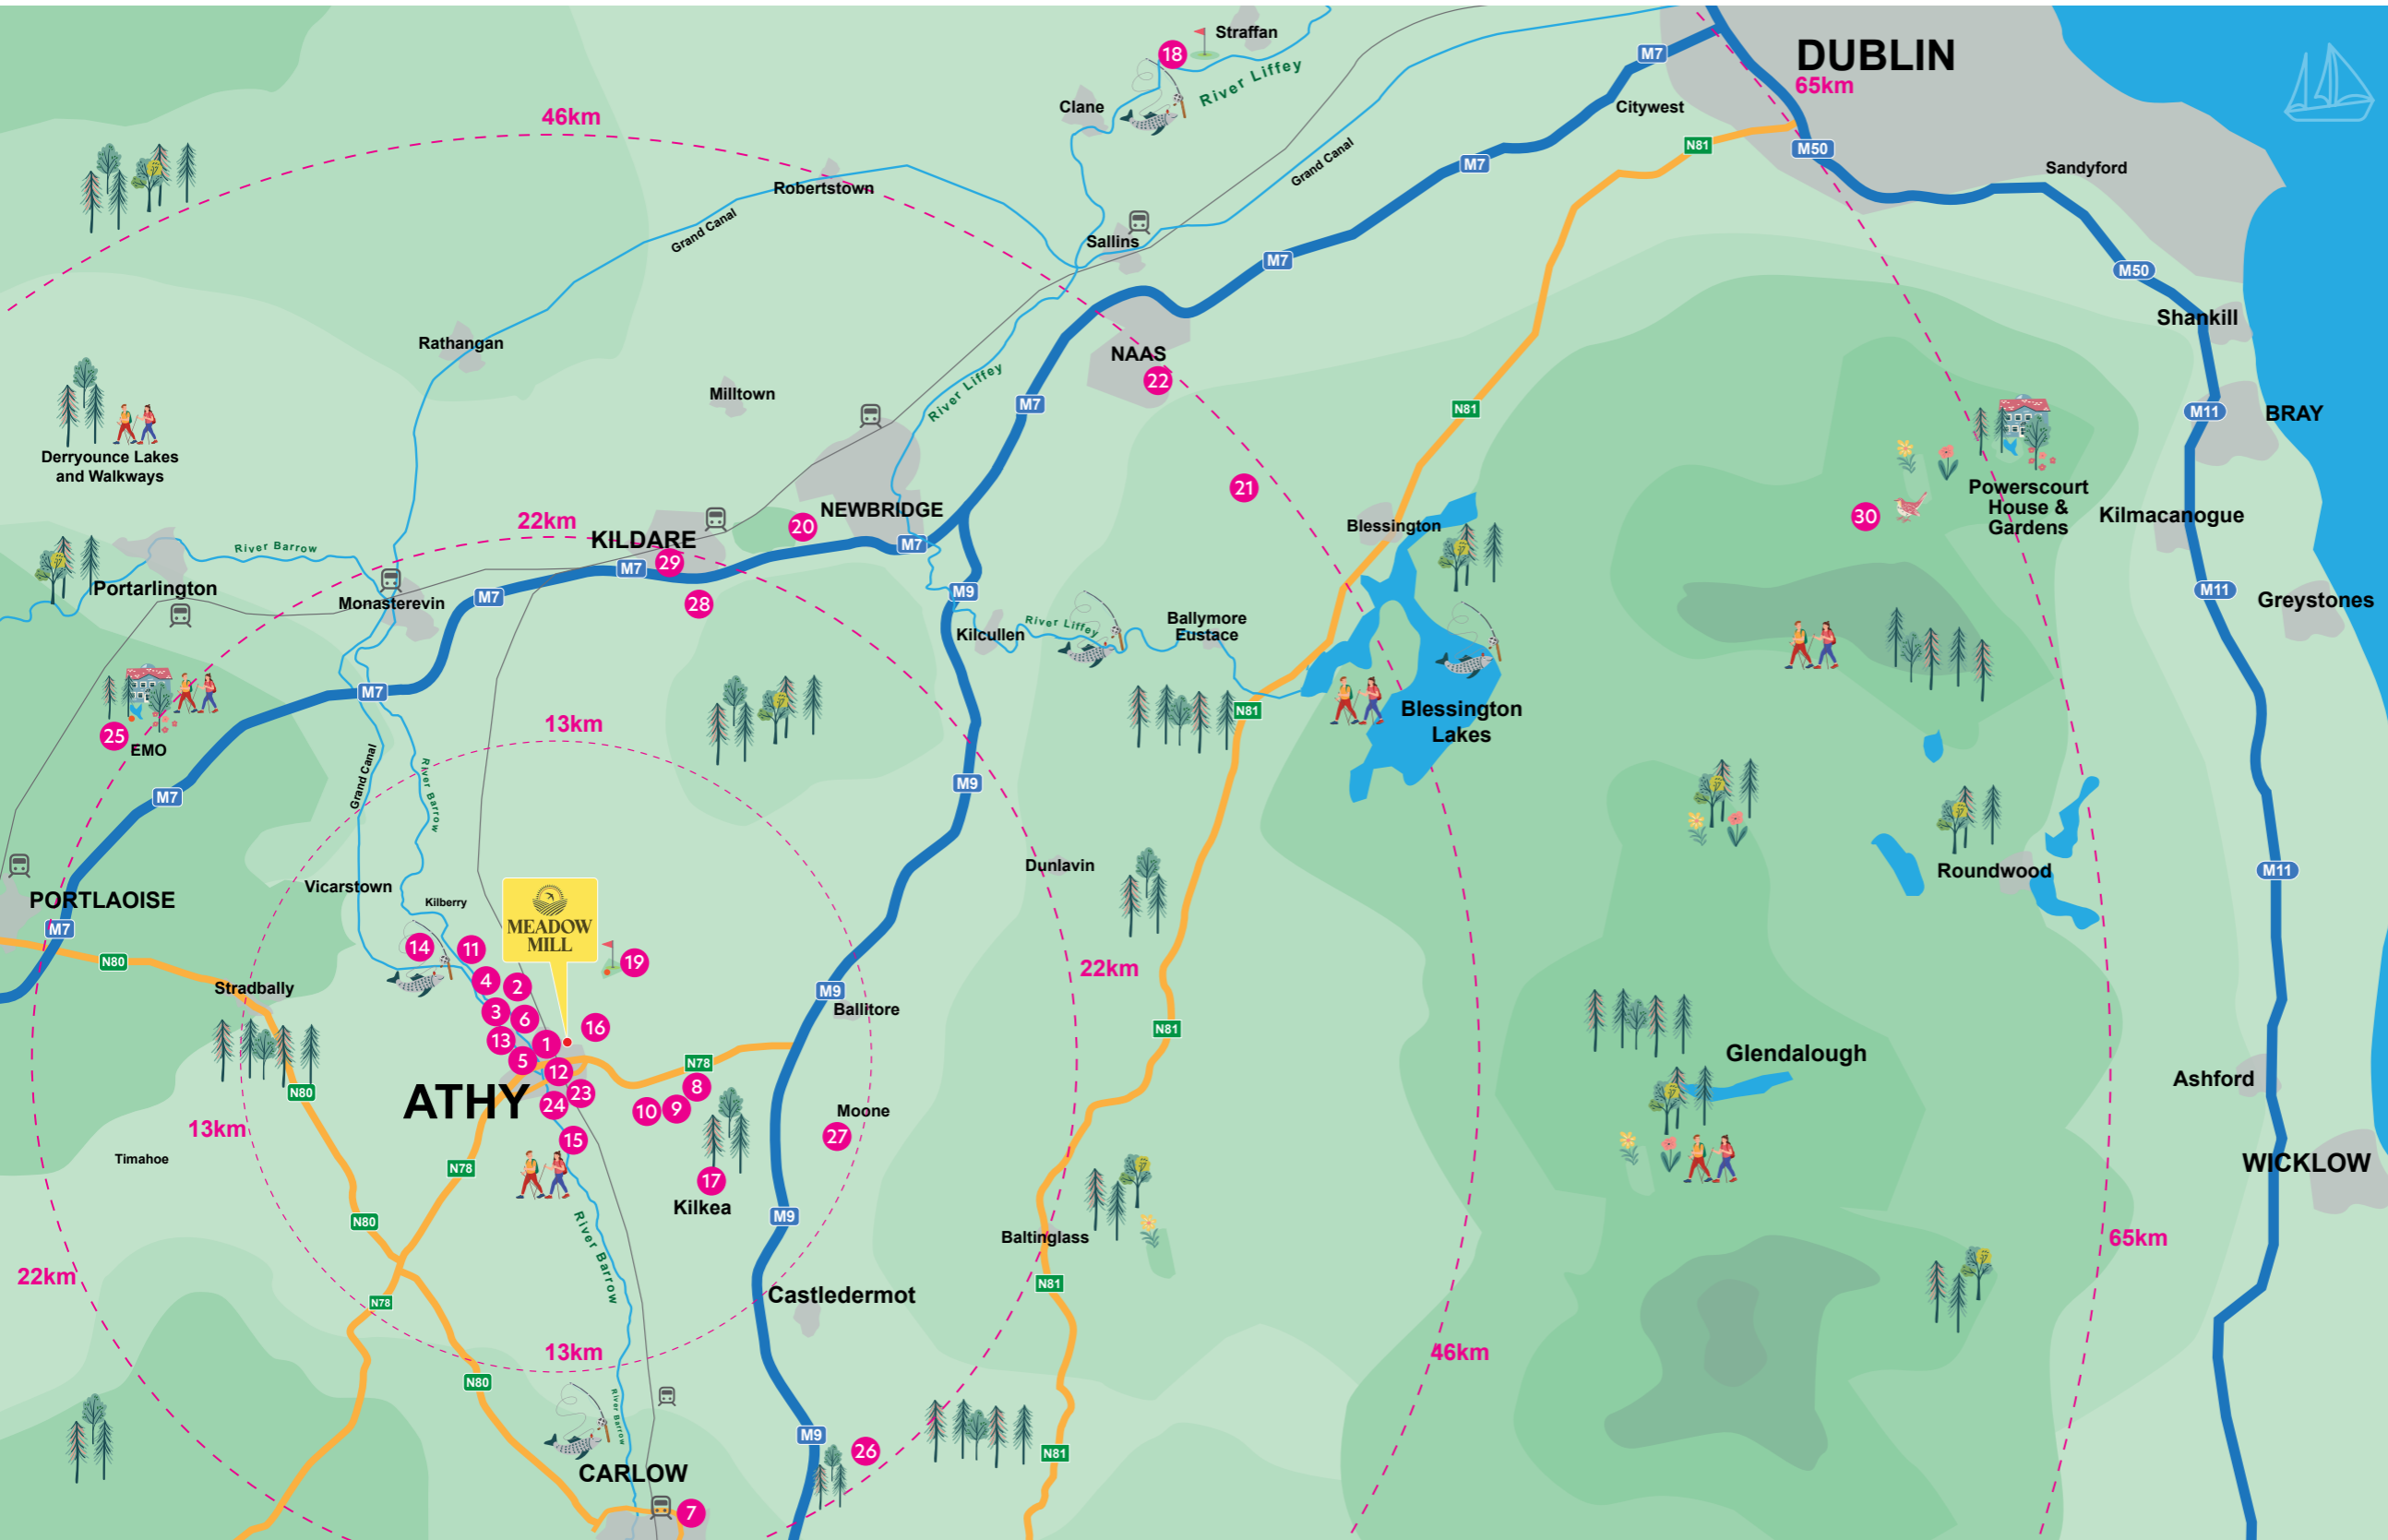

At Home in Athy

Athy is a wonderful riverside town which has a fantastic, vibrant community spirit. There are primary and secondary schools for the children, and this is a highly active locality.

Football, rugby, soccer, tennis, and golf, can all be found locally to keep the family busy. For those that like water sports; swimming, angling, and canoeing can also be enjoyed. If you would like to take a breather for a coffee or a spot of lunch, then you won't have to travel more than a few feet. The award winning Clanard Court Hotel, a hugely popular wedding venue is just on the edge of town, stones throw from Meadow Mill. However, should you really like to slow things down, then a gentle stroll along the Barrow Blueway or through the beautiful Kilkea Castle Estate, followed by lunch or afternoon tea in one of the Castle's dining establishments, might be in order.
