DESCRIPTION

Impressive roadside parcel of lands comprising of 1.10 Ha (2.7 acres) in the picturesque village of Terryglass. The parcel is located just 650m from Terryglass village and 900m from the pier on the shores of Lough Derg.

These lands have great development potential, there was planning permission granted for 4 dormer style properties with connection to the existing mains water and mains sewerage, but planning has since expired – Ref: 11510347 with Tipperary Co Co.

The lands are all in the one field and comprised in Folio TY41117F & are extremely level and of excellent quality.

Terryglass is a charming and vibrant village in North Tipperary, renowned for its rich history, welcoming community, and stunning natural surroundings. The village features award winning pubs, a quaint harbour, and is a popular destination for boating and fishing enthusiasts exploring Lough Derg. Essential amenities, including a primary school, church, and local shops, make Terryglass an ideal setting for families, holidaymakers, and those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle. Viewing recommended.
