

Alterations made to First floor.

A 3.5m balcony is now on top of the ground floor extension at the rear of the property, the balcony gives access to the garden from upper level on the east side.

Large windows and French doors with Juliette balcony on the south side of the property accommodates the spectacular views of the sand dunes and sea, this floods the living area with natural light.