DESCRIPTION

Surrounded by mature trees in a lovely setting along this very popular road, Teach Iméall is a large bright and welcoming family home offering lots of space and with options to expand even further if required. The existing accommodation includes a wide entrance hall, sittingroom with bay window to front and feature wood burning stove, a second family room also with stove installed. This in turn, opens through double doors into the generous kitchen/diningroom with good size utility off. Three of the double bedrooms are downstairs, two of which share a 'Jack & Jill' shower-room and the third with its own en-suite. There is also a guest wc/whb just off the hallway and a large walk-in hotpress.

Upstairs is the master bedroom with full bathroom ensuite and a separate walk-in closet. The fifth bedroom faces to the front and has a large dormer window overlooking the garden. Finally, the exceptionally generous attic space which is floored and part studded out is currently used for storage but ready for conversion to a further bedroom with bathroom if required.

LOCATION

Situated along the ever popular Minnistown Road towards the Laytown end, Teach Iméall is about 5 minutes drive from M1 at Drogheda South bringing both Dublin Airport and the city beyond into approx half hour commute off peak. Main line rail station at Laytown also services Dublin central with frequent trains on the daily schedule. Local amenities include both primary and secondary schools along with shops, restaurants and leisure facilities at Laytown/Bettystown as well as miles of safe sandy beaches and of course the well known Laytown and Bettystown Golf and Tennis Club. Drogheda is within a ten minute drive.
