Location

Blessington is an expanding village situated just off the N81 National Primary Route and within easy access of Naas Town and Dublin City Centre. The town has witnessed large growth in recent years with development of both residential and commercial development resulting in increased population. Many national and international brand names have located in the town including Dunnes Stores, Aldi, and Paddy Power. The subject property is located on the Kilbride Road just 100m from Main Street.

Description

The subject property comprises a single storey former public health centre extending to 228 sqm (2,454 sqft). The site features a car park to the front and garden to the rear with a total area of circa 0.53 acres (0.21 hectares).

Planning

The property is currently zoned Town Centre and would be suitable for redevelopment due its central location. The uses outlined in the Town Centre zoning matrix include commercial, residential or community developments.
