About this property

Steeped in history and built in the early 1900s by the family of Lord and Lady Fitzwilliam of the Coollattin Estate, this elegant Victorian country house is situated in an area of outstanding natural beauty.

Beautifully restored and upgraded by its current owners, the home beautifully blends period charm with modern comfort. Light-filled and characterful, it retains many original features, including open fireplaces, cornicing, ceiling roses, panelling, and ornate floor tiles.

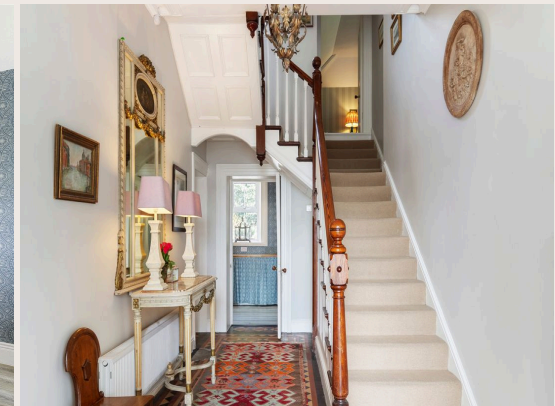

The accommodation is both spacious and inviting. The impressive entrance hall leads to a charming sitting room, a second sitting room/study, a guest cloakroom, utility room, and an open-plan kitchen/dining room that seamlessly extends to a private patio - perfect for outdoor entertaining. Upstairs, three generously proportioned double bedrooms, including a master with ensuite, offer stunning views of the rolling countryside. A beautifully appointed family bathroom completes the first floor.
