An exquisitely presented and beautifully maintained home situated on a circa 0.5 elevated acre site with excellent views of the surrounding hinterland that slopes away to reveal stunning view to the east, south and west from several rooms and from the large decking area which runs the width of the house. This three bedroom cottage residence was originally built in 1911 but was extended and renovated in 2000 and was once a rambling house whereby local musicians from the sliabh luachra area would gather for "ceol, rince agus craic"

A.M.V: €199,000
