Site Of The Former “Oak Tavern”, Ferrycarrig, Wexford.

LOCATION:

The subject site is located adjacent to the Ferrycarrig Bridge, overlooking the River Slaney. This is a prominent, high-profile location at the junction between the N11 and the regional road R730. This location is approximately 5 minutes' drive from Wexford Town Centre. It is within walking distance of the Ferrycarrig Hotel and the Irish National Heritage Park. Situated on the main route to Dublin from Rosslare Europort this site benefits from high volume of passing vehicular traffic. It is most convenient to all amenities at Wexford Town Centre.

Wexford is the County Town with an urban population in the region of 20,000 people - (Source: CSO Census 2016). The preliminary results of Census 2022 show that County Wexford's population has seen a rise of 9.2% since 2016. At the time of the last census County Wexford recorded a population of 149,425. The Central Statistics Office (CSO) has revealed that Wexford has seen a rise to 163,527 or 9.2%. This increase was slightly above the national increase of 7.6%, with Ireland recording a population of 5.1 million as of April 3, 2022.

Wexford has become an increasingly popular location to live, as people seek to escape the crowded capital, and this has combined with an increasing trend towards working from home. Wexford saw one of the highest levels of inward migration since 2016, with 9,487 people opting to move here. It was by far the highest in the south-east, with Waterford gaining 7,564, Carlow 2,807 and Kilkenny 1,756. In fact, Wexford saw the fifth highest number for estimated net migration in Ireland. (Source: CSO Census 2022)
