HIGH PROFILE OFFICE ACCOMMODATION

The Property

One Albert Quay offers top-tier Grade A office accommodation right in the heart of Cork City Centre. Designed by the award-winning Henry J Lyons architects, this LEED Gold-certified building provides high-quality office space. This part second floor suite extends to 962.48 sq m (10,360 sq ft).

The property enjoys excellent natural light thanks to full-height curtain glazing to the southern elevation and comes equipped with air-conditioning, w/c facilities, trunk cabling, exposed ceiling and LED lighting.

New occupiers will also benefit from a range of high-quality on-site amenities, including secure bicycle parking, communal showers and changing facilities, as well as an impressive atrium space with a staffed reception.

The floorplate benefits from a high-quality existing fit-out, inclusive of desks, chairs, air-conditioning, canteen, raised access floor in a primarily open plan format, with meeting rooms and boardroom also in place.

The Location

One Albert Quay is situated next to Cork's City Hall on a unique waterfront site, often described as the new CBD of Cork. Now established as a national and international business core due to recent and ongoing developments, the area has been home to a range of international and national occupiers within the building that include Johnson Controls, Proofpoint, Remitly, PwC, and Arup. Nearby, in the immediate vicinity, other occupiers include NetApp, Clearstream and Zoom.

The area is well serviced from the perspective of access, with a park and ride drop – off, Parnell Bus Station and Kent Train Station all within a ten-minute walk. Cork International Airport is 15 minutes' drive, providing accessibility not just on a national level but also an international level.

A range of restaurants, bars and shops are also located within walking distance, with St. Patrick Street, Cork's primary retail thoroughfare, less than ten minutes' walk from the building.
