Detached 3-bedroom farmhouse residence, set on approximately 0.2 acres of mature grounds, ideally located adjacent to the scenic Healy Pass Way.

This spacious two storey home offers excellent potential and could be suitable for restoration supports. The accommodation comprises of entrance hall, living room, sitting room, kitchen, and shower room on the ground floor. There are 3 bedrooms located on the first floor.

It is expected that the property could qualify for the Vacant Property Refurbishment Grant, offering an opportunity for prospective purchasers to restore and modernise this traditional home.

Externally, the property enjoys a south-facing garden, together with a concrete driveway providing ample parking within a walled entrance.

Set along the Healy Pass Way, approximately 15 minutes' drive from both Castletownbere and the popular tourist village of Glengarriff. The Beara Peninsula is renowned for its spectacular scenery and walking trails along the Wild Atlantic Way, encompassing numerous historical and archaeological sites.
