About this property

The Inn is a three-storey landmark property in Lisdoonvarna and extends to about 10,656 sq. ft. The ground floor accommodation briefly includes two fabulous reception rooms, 3 en-suite guest bedrooms, all with access to their own patio/terrace area breakfast room, office, restaurant and bar, commercial kitchens and access to the owner's private residence on the ground floor.

On the first floor, there is further guest accommodation including four en-suite bedrooms, all individually designed to match the surrounding and varying vistas. It features an incredible, recently extended extra-large room/suite with dual aspect views. The second floor includes a further six en-suite bedrooms and linen room. The owner's private residence is set over two floors and has its own private entrance. The accommodation comprises of four en suite bedrooms, dressing room, bathroom, shower room, kitchen, dining room and office. The key element of Wild Honey Inn is the established and award-winning restaurant. Access to the bar is from a front entrance porch, leading to a veranda with Victorian tiled floor and extra seating area. The bar/restaurant is characterful and atmospheric with a bar counter that provides a natural divide to two separate areas, each with open fireplaces. Decorated in keeping with the Victorian building and featuring high ceilings, hardwood floors, wooden tables and chairs. There is a custom fitted, wine cellar and keg room and a hallway leading to ladies and gents toilets. The 13 guest rooms are well proportioned, beautifully designed and decorated and have recently been renovated to a high standard in keeping with the overall feel of the Inn. All bedrooms are ensuite.

Gardens

The stunning and tranquil gardens are a particular feature, offering year-round interest with a wide range of planting. The private, walled garden, set to the rear of the house, overlooks rolling hills with a separate pedestrian and vehicle access to the side. It is a blissful oasis which has been carefully designed and is used by the guests and diners in the summer months. Further notable features of the garden include herbaceous borders, Kilkenny limestone patio and many different species of plants.

History

This is a fully restored Victorian building, with a history dating back to the 1840s. The current owners bought the building in late 2008 and opened in 2009 as Wild Honey Inn. The building is now fully restored and comprises of 13 individually appointed guest bedrooms, with a Fáilte Ireland four-star guesthouse rating. Housed within the building is a fully licenced bar/restaurant.

Wild Honey Inn presents an incredible opportunity for its new owners. The property is well known in the culinary world and beyond, as Ireland's only Michelin star pub. Over recent years, the business has evolved to suit the current owner's lifestyle, however the accommodation and configuration will allow its new owners explore different avenues of entertaining and generating income.
