About this property

Battlebridge Caravan and Camping Park represents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-established, family-run holiday park with diverse income streams, ideally positioned on the banks of the River Shannon. This highly regarded, Failte Ireland approved park comprises of caravan, camping, and glamping facilities, complemented by an on-site pub/restaurant and private marina, all set within a tranquil riverside setting on about 9 acres with 245 metres of frontage over the River Shannon.

This property offers significant appeal for investors and operators seeking a turnkey tourism property with an existing loyal customer base and strong seasonal trade. The park has demonstrated consistently strong performance in recent years, underpinned by the rising popularity of domestic and eco-tourism, particularly along the River Shannon.

Battlebridge benefits from a strategic location on the Shannon Blueway, a growing network of walking, cycling, and paddling trails. The Blueway is currently undergoing further development, with new connections linking Battlebridge to Carrick-on-Shannon, enhancing its accessibility and visitor appeal.

The property offers immediate potential for revenue growth and the development of additional glamping or serviced pitches, subject to planning. Battlebridge has also been recognised in the Irish Independent Reader Travel Awards as one of the 10 Best Irish Campsites.

Beirnes Pub & Restaurant

Beirne's of Battlebridge is an award-winning traditional Irish pub and restaurant. The property operates as a fully licensed premises 7 days a week, offering both locals and visitors a vibrant hub.

The building includes a versatile studio space and storage area located above the pub/restaurant, providing additional functional capacity. To the side of the premises, a spacious beer garden offers an inviting outdoor setting, perfect for gatherings and seasonal enjoyment.

Beirne's has received numerous accolades, including the Black & White Pub Award, Guinness Irish Pub of Distinction, and Woman's Way Magazine Family Pub of the Year.

A large car parking area adjacent to the property ensures convenient access.
