Description

Dromeela is an immaculately presented residence situated on a rise commanding exceptional views over Lough Derg, commonly regarded as Ireland's premier lake. Properties with such exceptional lake views rarely come to the open market, especially not with the highly coveted lake access which this property holds in the form of a private jetty located just a short distance from the house.

The charming residence which extends to c. 196 sq.m (2,118 sq.ft) of well laid out, bright and spacious accommodation, taking the utmost advantage of the Lough Derg vista. In terms of accommodation Dromeela is deceptively large; the entrance hall leads to four large reception rooms on the ground floor which include a living room, study, conservatory and kitchen/dining room. The reception rooms have many fine features including open fireplaces with marble surrounds, ceiling cornicing and roses, glass panelled doors, picture windows and French doors. Upstairs there are five double bedrooms, which are all bright and spacious with beautiful views over the lake. Two of the bedrooms also have the benefit of ensuite shower rooms; there is also a large family bathroom on this floor.

The property is entered via secure electronic gates which lead to the front of the house and gardens. The gardens are a particular feature of Dromeela and extend to c. 0.86 acres and include a large lawn which is interspaced with flowering shrubs. The current owners have added a charming fountain area to the side of the property. Like the house the gardens command spectacular views over Lough Derg and the surrounding countryside. To the side of the house is large boat house and storage shed.
