Drishane House is a substantial property which has been meticulously maintained since its revamp and extension some 25 years ago. The property originally comprised a two-storey detached dwelling with large gardens to the rear. This site was subsequently extended and developed to provide the necessary additional accommodation for the Sisters of Drishane Community.

The accommodation briefly comprises 13 single bedrooms fitted with vanity units and wash basins. Large Kitchen with separate dining room and a variety of sitting rooms and lounge rooms. The property is also fitted with a beautifully appointed Oratory.

Ancillary accommodation includes multiple utility rooms, store rooms and drying rooms, with and an external boiler house.

The internal accommodation extends to some 6,700 sq ft approx. The overall site, which is elevated and facing due south, extends to over 1 acre approx.

The property also benefits from private parking facilities, and attractively maintained landscaped gardens.
