Excellent opportunity to acquire a property with amazing water views, in one of West Corks best holiday destinations. This property is discreetly located within walking distance (1.2km) of Crookhaven village, a short drive of beautiful Barleycove beach and Mizen Head. Situated on c. 0.5 acres, this former dwelling house is now in ruins. The property is for sale as is and is not subject to planning. Amazing views and waters edge frontage is available here onto the calm Crookhaven Harbour which offers a host of anchoring and mooring possibilities.

Access from the village is a narrow surfaced public road for the first half of the distance followed by an uneven narrow track, with right of way access towards the end.
