Cregg Lodge, Cregg, Glandore, West Cork, P81 N126

Kitchen Dining Area
A wonderfully bright and spacious kitchen/dining area, featuring an attractive fitted kitchen with an abundance of storage, generous worktop space and integrated appliances. Natural light streams through the overhead Velux window, while the adjoining dining area, with its charming solid-fuel stove, provides a delightful setting for relaxed family living and entertaining.

Living Room
A truly delightful living room, wonderfully bright and spacious, with a magnificent vaulted ceiling and exposed timber beams adding character and charm. South-facing glazed double doors and tall west-facing windows flood the room with natural light, while an attractive open fireplace creates a cosy retreat for relaxing evenings with family and friends.

Master Bedroom
A beautifully proportioned and wonderfully bright bedroom, enjoying a peaceful ground-floor setting. Two south-facing windows fill the room with natural light while offering delightful views across the front lawn. Tastefully presented with attractive timber flooring, the room also benefits from a private ensuite bathroom, adding comfort and convenience.

Nestled in a wonderfully sheltered setting amid the rolling green hills of West Cork, just 500 metres from the beach and 3km from picturesque Glandore, this exceptional four-bedroom residence offers a rather irresistible combination of countryside tranquillity, coastal living and contemporary comfort.

Extending to approximately 2,300 sq. ft., the house has been built to an exceptionally high standard, with quality hardwood joinery, generous proportions and an abundance of natural light throughout. From the moment you enter, the magnificent double-height entrance hall makes quite an impression, with its soaring ceiling, striking triangular window and gallery-style landing above providing a wonderful sense of space and architectural flair.

The accommodation flows beautifully, with a spacious open-plan kitchen/dining area forming the welcoming heart of the home. Beyond, the spectacular living room is a genuine showstopper, featuring a vaulted ceiling, exposed timber beams and an inviting open fireplace. South-facing glazed doors and tall west-facing windows ensure that sunshine is a regular houseguest, lingering long into the evening. A home where even the dullest Monday might feel a little like a Sunday afternoon. Four generously proportioned bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged across both floors, with two at ground level and two upstairs, offering wonderful flexibility for family life, visiting guests or those fortunate enough to work from home. Four bathrooms complete the accommodation, helping to ensure that the morning rush need never become a competitive sport.

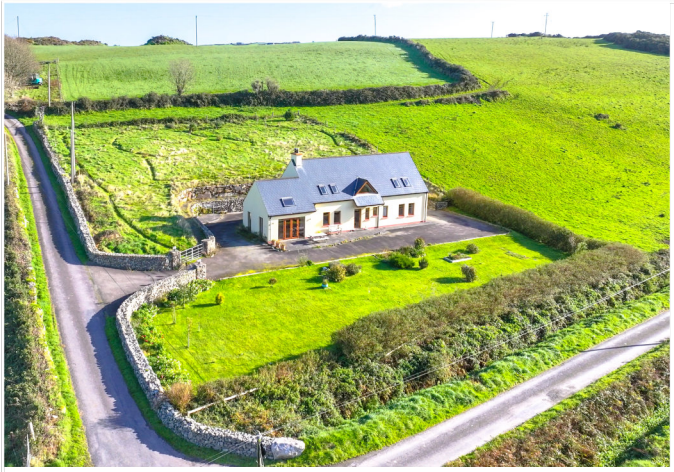

Outside, wrought-iron entrance gates set between traditional natural stone walls open onto beautifully maintained grounds. Colourful planting frames the sweeping lawns, while a small paddock to the rear adds another dimension to this delightful countryside retreat. There is even a natural spring well in the front garden, a charming reminder of the landscape's timeless character.

And what a landscape it is! Almost in the shadow of the ancient Drombeg Stone Circle, the property enjoys a truly special setting where history, countryside and coastline meet. The enchanting harbour village of Glandore is just 3km away, with Rosscarbery 6km, Skibbereen 16km and Clonakilty 18km. Cork City and Airport are approximately 70km distant.

With fibre broadband already connected, modern convenience has certainly not been sacrificed for rural charm. Cregg Lodge is more than a beautiful family home; it is an invitation to embrace the very best of West Cork living, where beaches, harbour villages and breathtaking countryside are all part of everyday life. And frankly, who wouldn't want a little more of that?
