Set in the peaceful countryside of Scarnagh Lower, this impressive, detached residence enjoys a wonderfully private setting while remaining just minutes from Arklow town. Surrounded by rolling green landscape and mature countryside, the property offers an exceptional balance of rural living with outstanding convenience.

The location is highly accessible, with the M11 motorway just a short drive away, providing direct links to Dublin and the South East. Arklow town is within easy reach, offering a full range of schools, shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure amenities, while Gorey is also conveniently accessible for further retail and lifestyle options.

For coastal living, a selection of beautiful beaches close by, offering long sandy stretches, scenic walks and excellent outdoor recreation.

This is a substantial and beautifully maintained family home, set on approximately 2.2 acres of mature grounds. The property is designed with both comfort and lifestyle in mind, offering generous accommodation throughout and superb outdoor space that flows naturally from the home. The setting is private, quiet, and ideal for those seeking space, fresh air, and a relaxed countryside lifestyle without sacrificing convenience.
