About this property

The Killeen Estate

With a rich history dating back to 1181, Killeen Castle is among Ireland's most historic estates. Originally built by Hugh de Lacy, the estate later became the ancestral home of the Plunkett family, the Earls of Fingal, until 1951. Today, the estate has been thoughtfully redeveloped into one of Ireland's premier country living locations, featuring an 18-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course, a clubhouse with dining and bar facilities, and beautiful woodland walks.

The estate is currently being further enhanced with the development of a luxury hotel within the castle itself.

Set on beautifully landscaped private grounds within the secure Killeen Castle Estate, this elegant modern residence offers substantial and versatile living space across three floors.

The ground floor comprises an impressive entrance hall leading into a spacious reception hall. The sitting room and separate dining room are bright and generously proportioned, ideal for entertaining, while the kitchen/family room serves as the heart of the home, fitted with high-quality cabinetry and appliances. Additional rooms on this level include a snug, study, utility room, pantry, cloakroom, guest WC, and WC. The double garage with adjoining plant room is accessed internally.

Upstairs, the first floor accommodates five luxurious bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms and excellent wardrobe space, including walk-in wardrobes. The master suite enjoys a private balcony, and two further bedrooms have direct balcony access, offering beautiful views over the estate.

The second floor provides exceptional additional living space with a reading area, cinema room, games room, and storage rooms, ideal for family relaxation and leisure activities.

Externally, the house is approached by a sweeping driveway through electric gates, with mature planting and professionally landscaped gardens enhancing its privacy and appeal. Terraces offer perfect spaces for outdoor dining and entertaining.
