1 Silchester Gardens is a newly built detached home within a small boutique development of just 3 detached, A energy rated houses. Crafted to perfection, combining energy efficiency with a luxurious and beautifully proportioned layout, extending to approx. 190 sq. m / 2045 sq. ft. This exclusive, light filled home showcases top-of-the-line finishes of superior quality, undoubtedly catering for the needs of the discerning purchaser, either seeking to trade up to or indeed those downsizing alike.

Silchester Gardens is conveniently located off Silchester Road, undoubtedly one of Glenageary's most premier roads. The location could not be more desirable, being within easy reach of a vast selection of amenities and recreational facilities such as Glenageary Tennis Club, Killiney Hill and the People's Park. Numerous maritime leisure facilities are available in the four local Yacht Clubs. For the swimming enthusiast there is a choice of bathing spots in the Forty Foot, Sandycove, Vico and Killiney Beach. Glasthule village with its eclectic mix of shops, cafés, bar, and restaurants is but a leafy 8-minute stroll away, also nearby are Sandycove and Dalkey. There is an excellent selection of local schools, and the Dart provides access to many of South County Dublin's secondary schools. The area is well serviced by public transport links with Dublin Bus routes and the Dart at Glenageary station just a five-minute walk away providing swift and easy access to the city centre while the Aircoach provides direct access to Dublin Airport. The M50 which provides access to all arterial routes around the country is within a short drive.
