‘Glena Ville’, Glena Terrace, Spawell Road

LOCATION: Spawell Road is a highly sought-after address, within a short stroll of Wexford Town Centre. Glena Terrace occupies a unique position overlooking Wexford Harbour and boasts exceptional coastal scenery from the upper floors. Wexford Train & Bus Station is situated only a short stroll from the property and provides regular commuting services to and from Dublin, Waterford and other regional centres. All amenities are close by from restaurants, supermarkets, boutiques and a host of other amenities in Wexford Town Centre.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: This wonderful Victorian property offers spacious accommodation, set out over three floors. In total there is in excess of 3,000 sq.ft. within this end-of-terrace, three-bay townhouse. The property was built in 1892 and is one of a terrace of eight houses. This property represents an important component of the late nineteenth century heritage of Wexford. There are many period features including; the vibrant red brick with silver grey granite dressings. Internally there is ornate floor tiles, period fireplaces, centre-pieces and decorative coving. This is a listed property on the Record of Protected Structures in Wexford. In recent times it has been occupied by a solicitor’s practice.

This property has much potential to be used either as a commercial office or indeed an elegant family home. ‘Glena Ville’ offers one of the largest site on Glena Terrace. There is an abundance of outside space and also a rear access.
