Floor Area: measurements on all sales literature and advertisements are approximate and are computed on the gross internal area (GIA), the total area measured from inside of external blockwork to inside of external blockwork, which is the commonly accepted method of measurement for residential units. These measurements have been provided to us by either the relevant architect or client. However, it should be noted that in some cases variations in floor areas may occur.

Subject to Contract / Contract Denied. These particulars are issued strictly on the understanding that they are intended as a general guide only to what is being offered subject to contract and availability. They should not be construed as containing any representation of fact upon which any interested party is entitled to rely. Any intending purchaser or lessee should satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the accuracy of these particulars. The vendor or lessee do not make, give or imply nor REA Grimes or its staff authorised to make, give or imply any representation or warranty whatsoever in respect of this property. Please note that we have no authority to bind our clients and no contract shall exist or be deemed to exist until formal contracts have been executed between the parties and a full deposit paid. REA Grimes comply with the Data Protection Acts 1988 & 2003, therefore any personal information you provide will remain confidential, unless prior consent has been obtained to transfer this information to Robert Grimes EBS Branch Manager at Location Ashbourne & Skerries.
