St. Stephen's Green

Created in 1670 St. Stephen's Green is the oldest and largest of Dublin's City Georgian Squares consisting of 22 acres (8.9 ha) of landscaped gardens and walkways. St. Stephen's Green was enclosed by a wall in 1664 and access to 'the Green' was restricted to local residents until 1877 when Parliament passed an Act to open it to the public.

Sir Arthur Guinness, a member of the Guinness brewing family, was a driving force behind the opening of St. Stephen's Green to the public and paid for the laying of the Green in its current form.

St. Stephen's Green retains many of the features created in 1880 including the large pond (which is fed from the Grand Canal at Portabello), a Bandstand, Gardener's Cottage, the Fusiliers Arch at the corner of the park opposite Grafton Street and the St. Stephen's Green kiosk, opposite The Shelbourne Hotel.
