OVERVIEW

Unique is a word which is often overused but, in this instance, Corkagh Mill House and Farm is a truly unique property. Upon entering through the property's stone pillars, dating from the 19th century, the serene mill pond comes into view and the gravel driveway sweeps along the edge of the mill pond to finally unveil Corkagh Mill House and a series of beautifully restored cut stone buildings including four additional residences, all set around a large, gravelled and landscaped area. The driveway continues past the main house, flanked by further cut stone buildings and leads to the magnificent walled garden, which is currently in use as the nursery. A further two residences plus the stable building and garages are located adjacent to paddocks enclosed by post and rail fencing and native Irish trees and hedging. There is an additional farm entrance located at the other side of the lands, which is accessed from the R136 via the access road into Corkagh Park.

The property includes the following residences within its grounds:

1. Corkagh Mill House – 3 bedrooms – BER B3.
2. The Lodge – 1 bedroom – BER G
3. The Loft – 2 bedrooms plus study – BER C3
4. The Mews – 1 bedroom – BER D1
5. The Studio – 3 bedroom – G
6. Rainbow Lodge – 4 bedroom – C2
7. The Stables – 2 bedroom – D2.

CORKAGH MILL HOUSE

At the centre of this superb property is Corkagh Mill House. Dating from 1820, this is a charming, detached period home extending to an impressive c. 295 sq m of luxurious accommodation. This home was lovingly restored to its current impeccable condition in 2014, and the interior has been tastefully designed to create a warm and light filled home, featuring many impressive period features harking back to its Georgian era origins.

There is a large entrance hall beyond the Georgian style front door with feature fan light, and this impressive hallway features a beautifully crafted staircase leading to the first floor, and double doors into the magnificent sunroom. Also accessed from the central hallway are two excellently proportioned reception rooms; a more formal library and an informal sitting room, both complete with Waterford Stanely wood burning stoves.

There are double doors leading from the sitting room into the magnificent sunroom, which enjoys a south-westerly aspect and runs the full length of the house, overlooking the well-stocked rear gardens, designed to ensure year-round bloom and colour.

The sunroom is a delightful living space, luxuriously finished with an exquisite Indian slate floor and double doors leading to the kitchen cum breakfast room which features a well-equipped, painted wood, in-frame fitted kitchen, finished in "French Apple" and complete with central island, butcher block countertops and complete with an AGA.

Located just off the kitchen is the rear hallway/boot room, leading to the side entrance door and gated access to the gardens. There is also a shower room and utility room accessed from the rear hallway.

At first floor level there are three large bedrooms, the main bathroom featuring luxurious fittings and Positano tiling, a free standing rolltop bath and separate shower. There is also a further shower room at the first floor level and a staircase leading to the second floor, where there is a dressing room and additional storage space.
