At Home in Historical Celbridge

Celbridge is a thriving Kildare town just over the border and resting on the commuter belt into Dublin City Centre. A historical location dating back to as early as the 13th century, it is still brimming with evidence of its heritage. Celbridge Abbey, Market House, Castletown House, to name just a few sites of interest, all add to the rich history of this extremely popular area.

Celbridge

This town is a fantastic place to build a home. Celbridge is a community that is warm, welcoming, and flourishing. It has everything you need within its boundary.

There are schools, shops, medical centres, banks, hair and beauty salons and numerous other local businesses to hand. Whether you fancy a spot of brunch in The Orchard Garden Centre's café, or afternoon tea in the stunning Cliff at Lyons, they are both on your doorstep alongside a host of other high-quality restaurants, cafés, and pubs.

A Thriving Town

Quality Living at Your Own Pace

Celbridge has an array of sporting facilities for the family who likes to keep active.

There are soccer, rugby, and GAA clubs in the area. A tennis club, athletics club, and gymnastics club, alongside a canoeing club and various gyms can also be found locally.

If you fancy a round of golf, there are numerous local golf courses and being in the home of the horse means anything equine related will only be a short drive away.

If you would rather slow things down a little however, perhaps take a stroll in the Castletown Estate, or a walk along the Grand Canal. This town has it all and more. A perfect place to play.

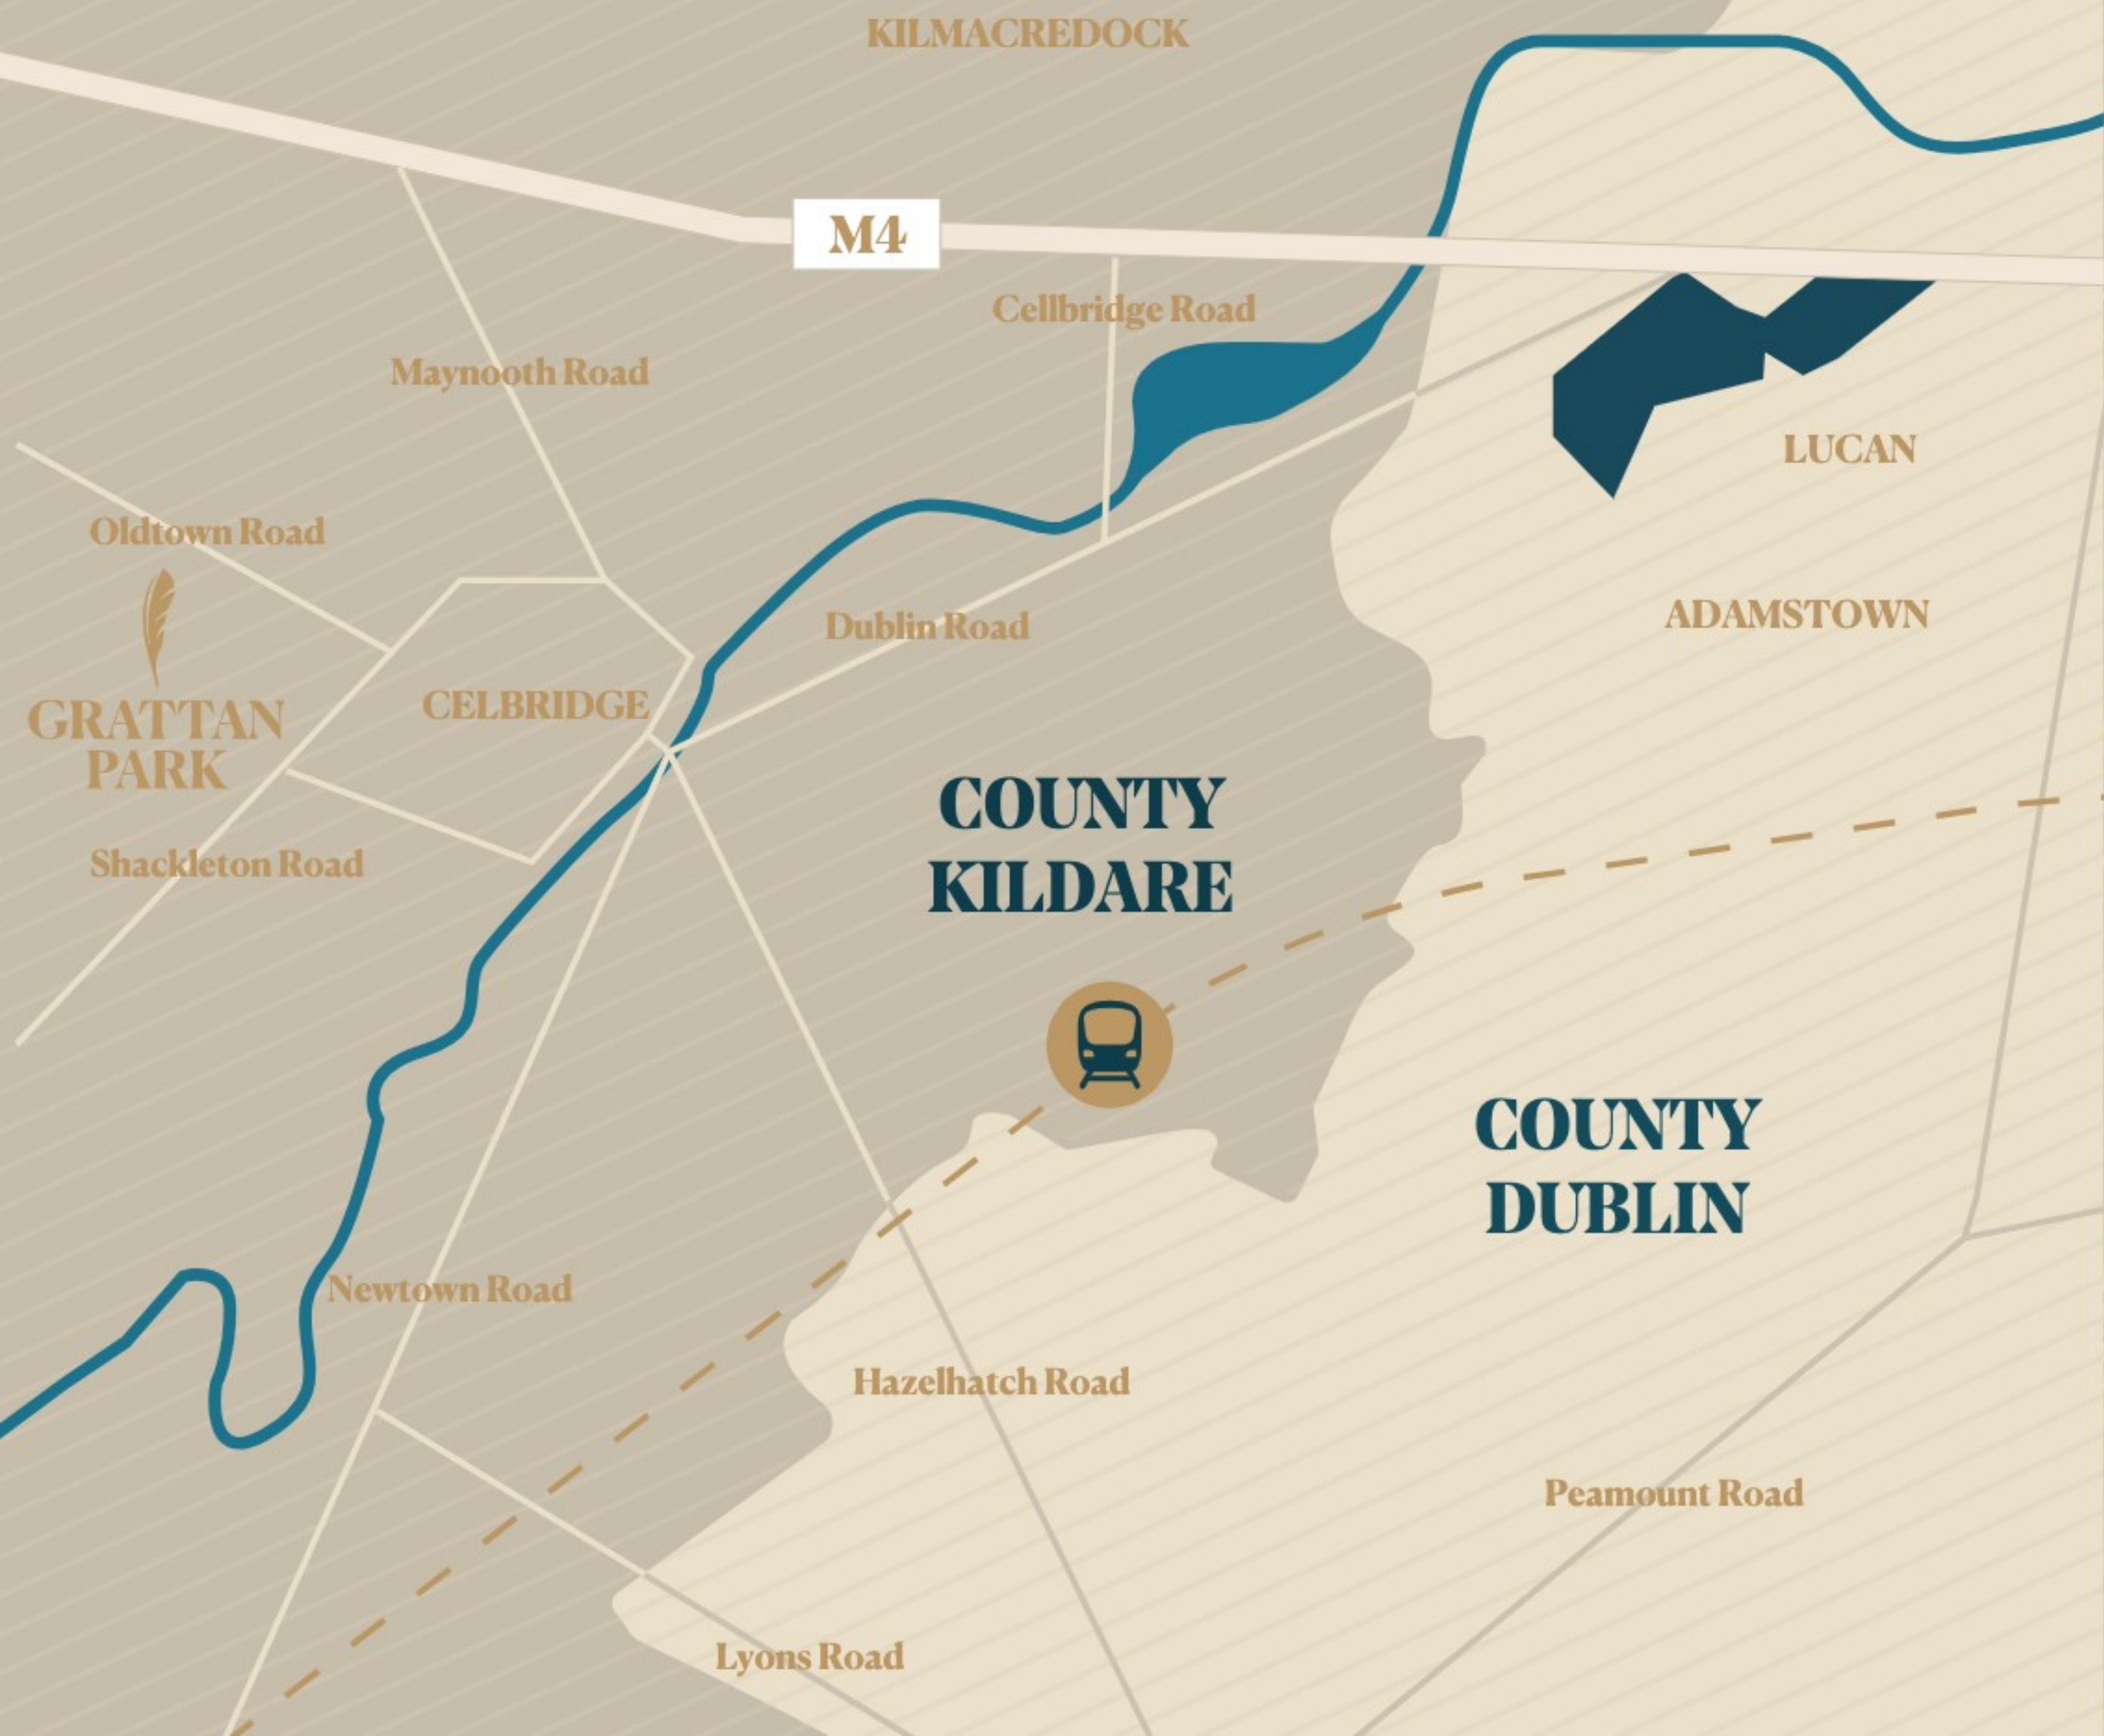

Commuting from Celbridge

Being located just off the M4 makes onward journeys extremely convenient from Celbridge.

Liffey Valley Shopping Centre and the M50 can both be reached in under fifteen minutes and Dublin Airport and Dublin City Centre can be reached in under thirty minutes from the town.

There are plenty of reliable bus services running frequently from the area. Hazelhatch train station provides regular commuter train journeys into Dublin's Heuston Station too ensuring everybody can get where they need to go with ease.
