About this property

Nestled within almost 5 acres of landscaped grounds, Rose Cottage stands as a testament to meticulous restoration, with no stone being unturned. This exquisite property combines two stone cottages from the 18th century, seamlessly linked to create a haven of timeless charm and elegance. At the heart of its landscaped mature gardens lies a captivating 500,000-litre spring-fed pond, a sanctuary for an array of beautiful wildlife, enhancing the serene and private ambience that envelops the property.

The journey to Rose Cottage begins with an impressive approach via 7-foot electric gates, leading down a hedge-lined 180-meter driveway, ensuring privacy and an immediate sense of arrival.
