29 Whitworth Road, Drumcondra, Dublin 9

Location

The property comprises a prominent corner position at the junction of Whitworth Road and St Brigids Road. Overlooking the Royal Canal it lies close to the village of Phibsboro and the busy shopping parades on Drumcondra Road.

The property would appeal to a range of small to medium sized investors in view of the tenancies in place.

Description

The property comprises a two storey end of terrace commercial building, and is laid out to provide office accommodation at ground floor level and self-contained office accommodation at first floor level.

The property is in excellent condition throughout and provides high quality office accommodation. The property has the benefit of off street car parking to the front
