About this property

Savills and Walsh O' Sullivan proudly presents Ballyseedy House, Ballyseedy, Tralee, Co Kerry. An idyllic 4-bedroom bungalow set on about 3.8 acres, offering unparalleled privacy. The property comes with an impressive single storey workshop offering about 325 sq m / 3,500 sq ft of space.

Ballyseedy House is accessed via a large, recessed entrance, which guides you to a spacious parking area. From here you can access the workshop and main residence through an attractive stone archway with wrought iron entrance gate. Once through the archway, you can appreciate the high level of privacy the site offers and the superb Kerry Mountain views.

Upon stepping over the threshold of Ballyseedy House, you are greeted with a choice of reception rooms and three spacious bedrooms. The property has been well designed to offer a selection of interconnecting reception rooms and large window openings to maximise natural light. Stepping into the grounds reveals a choice of private and sunny seating areas as well as a detached building that has been divided into two rooms to provide additional storage spaces. The gardens themselves are simply spectacular, with large lawn spaces, high boundary walls in part and mature planting. The site offers further development potential subject to planning permission. The workshop itself offers large open plan spaces with high eaves in part of the building.
