Charming coastal three-bedroom traditional residence and outbuildings, set on 0.75 acres of mature gardens, presented in excellent condition and enjoying an enviable location just a short stroll from Blind Harbour, Myross Island and Squince Beach.

Blending traditional character with modern comfort, the home features solid parquet floors, a traditional open fireplace with a stone surround and bog oak mantelpiece, fitted kitchen and attractive décor throughout.

The ground floor includes a sitting room, living room, kitchen and dining area, rear hall and shower room, while upstairs there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the gardens are beautifully landscaped with lawns, trees and shrubs, complimented by a spacious workshop and garage extending to 20ft x 19ft, along with a range of old farm buildings offering exciting potential for conversion to a studio or other uses.

Situated within easy reach of the fishing village of Union Hall and the bustling market town of Skibbereen, this property offers a rare opportunity to enjoy a peaceful coastal lifestyle in one of West Cork's most scenic settings.
