

LAND C. 17.2 ACRES
Corbally | Saggart | Co. Dublin

This is an aerial photograph of a large, irregularly shaped green field. A thick red line outlines the boundary of the land. The field is surrounded by various features: a residential area with houses and a parking lot is visible in the upper left; a road runs along the left side of the field; a small building and some trees are located near the bottom center of the outlined area; and a dense line of trees and bushes runs along the bottom and right sides of the field. The overall landscape is a mix of green fields, trees, and some built-up areas.

DESCRIPTION

This land comprises of approximately 17.2 acres (6.95 hectares) of gently sloping grazing land, enjoying direct frontage onto Mount Seskin. The lands are of high-quality agricultural standard, currently laid out in grass and well-suited for grazing purposes.

Access to the land is provided via a small metal gate from the road, offering straightforward entry for vehicles and machinery.

A small hay shed is located on the land, offering useful on-site storage.

According to the South Dublin County Development Plan 2022–2028, the lands are zoned Objective RU – Agriculture, which seeks: "To protect and improve rural amenity and to provide for the development of agriculture."

This is a valuable opportunity to acquire quality agricultural land in a scenic and accessible location.
