

WOODBANK

Enjoy all the pleasures of city, coast and country living at Woodbank, an exclusive new development adjacent to the beautiful village of Shankill in South County Dublin.

Set against the backdrop of some of the most breathtaking scenery Ireland has to offer, Woodbank offers dwellers all the convenience of modern suburban living with the freedom of an enviable coastal location close to the Dublin Mountains.

Perfect for young professionals, growing families and those looking to downsize, Woodbank comprises 4 bed semi-detached and terraced houses and 2 and 3 bed apartments and duplex, all designed and finished to a remarkably high standard.

THE SETTING

Perfectly situated adjacent to Killiney, known as Ireland's Bay of Naples, Woodbank allows you to enjoy some of the most stunning coastline in Ireland, as well as one of the few Blue Flag beaches on the East Coast.

A short drive south will take you to the beautiful Glen of the Downs, the historic village of Glendalough, and Powerscourt Estate, home to Ireland's highest waterfall, all ideal for family days out.

THE DEVELOPMENT

Woodbank is a new development of A-rated 4 bed semi-detached and terraced houses, 2 and 3 bed apartments and duplex. All finished to an incredibly high standard, Woodbank offers an impressive choice of homes perfect for growing families, young professionals wishing to put down roots and those looking to downsize.

The 58 homes comprise 40 four bed houses and 18 apartments and duplex, all generously sized and designed to be both energy efficient and cosy.

Woodbank's enviable location allows you to enjoy a lifestyle
second to none

THE VILLAGE

The fashionable village of Shankill boasts a wide range of retail outlets, including a post office, pharmacy, convenience store and hardware. For families and avid readers, the village also contains an excellent public library.

Shankill is home to an array of cafés and restaurants, including the award-winning Brady's gastro-pub, famed for its quality bar-food and traditional beverages and craft beers. Other excellent choices for dining include Café Solo and the nearby Street Food Outlet.

Shankill is an excellent location for young families thanks to the abundance of well-regarded primary and second-level schools in the area. Just some of the secondary school options include Holy Child, Killiney; Blackrock College; Newpark Comprehensive; Loreto College Dalkey; and Presentation College Bray. For younger children, both Scoil Naomh Anna and Rathmichael Parish Primary School are within walking distance.

Thanks to its unparalleled transport links, Shankill is also close to a number of other retail and lifestyle hubs, including Dundrum Town Centre, Stillorgan Village, Blackrock Shopping Centre, Cornelscourt and The Park, Carrickmines. The bustling seaside town of Bray is only a five-minute drive away whilst Dalkey village is a mere 7 minute drive north.

ON YOUR DOORSTOP

Shankill and its environs offer an impressive array of sporting amenities, from gyms to golf, rugby and tennis clubs

The stunning coastline from Shankill to Killiney is the perfect setting for those who love the peace of the sea. Enjoy all manner of watersports, or simply add an evening stroll into your day, the perfect antidote to a stressful workday.

Families will love spending long summer days down at the Blue Flag beach, enjoying the crystal-clear water and exploring all the wonders the coastline has to offer.

SPORTS & ACTIVITIES

Shankill village is home to well-known tennis and bowling clubs, while golfers will flock to Woodbrook Golf Club, just five minutes away, which boasts incredible views of Dublin Bay and the Dublin Mountains.

Shankill is truly a haven for those who love the outdoors. Hikers can enjoy the many trails and paths in the nearby Dublin Mountains, or tackle the Sugar Loaf, only a short drive away.

Closer to home, golfers can choose from an array of noteworthy clubs, including Carrickmines and Dun Laoghaire. Undoubtedly the jewel in the crown is the stunning Woodbrook Golf Club, which has hosted the Irish Open.

Well-established rugby, tennis, bowls and GAA clubs are also close by, while water sports enthusiasts can choose from a selection of sailing clubs or even give wind-surfing a try!

TRANSPORT

Woodbank offers excellent transport links to the city centre and beyond. For drivers, the development is situated just two minutes from the M50, providing easily accessible links to Ireland's motorway network.

For commuters, Shankill DART station and Cherrywood Luas stop are within easy reach. The reliable 7B, 84 and 45A bus routes all serve the area whilst the 145 provides an exceptional service to the city centre and beyond to Heuston Station. Access to the airport is also fast and easy, thanks to the Aircoach service, which stops in Shankill.

The area's top-class transport infrastructure provides residents with easy access to nearby towns and villages, as well as the capital

Woodbank's location provides easy access to a range of bustling towns and amenities, as well as Dublin city centre. The busy town of Bray is only one stop away on the DART network, and offers a wide range of shopping facilities as well as plenty of family-friendly leisure amenities on the seafront. Just one more stop on the DART will take you to picturesque Greystones, with its scenic coastline and wonderful cafés and local shops.

For foodies, the elegant village of Dalkey offers a range of high-class restaurants and bars, and is situated only minutes away. Or simply jump on the DART and enjoy the scenic trip along the coastline into the city centre, a journey taking only 30 minutes. If you're feeling adventurous, stay on the DART and travel on to Howth or Malahide, and enjoy the huge array of fine restaurants in both destinations.

Alternatively, the Luas Green Line stops in Cherrywood, located just minutes from Woodbank, and travels through some stunning locales in South Dublin to its final destination, St. Stephens Green. Stay on the tram for the relaxing trip into the city centre, or stop off at one of the scenic villages or towns along the way.

A bright and spacious interior makes modern living a breeze at Woodbank. Each room makes the most of natural light thanks to generous windows and patio doors. Outdoor space is maximised with balconies and patio areas, and strong glass doors allow you to really bring the outside in.

Much attention is given to strong design and stylish finishes, but comfort is never compromised thanks to an abundance of must-have modern conveniences. A house is truly a home at Woodbank.
