MALAHIDE

Enjoy a luxurious lifestyle at Mabestown Wood, a prestigious collection of elegant homes beside the historic Malahide Castle and its 260 acres of lush parkland and gardens. This exclusive development of high-quality family homes is a great opportunity to put down roots in an established and highly sought after location with the best of local amenities within easy reach.

An aerial photograph of Malahide, Ireland, at sunset. The sky is a vibrant orange and yellow, with soft clouds. In the foreground, a large marina is filled with numerous sailboats and yachts. The town of Malahide is visible in the middle ground, with its buildings and streets illuminated by the warm light of the setting sun. The Dublin coast and the surrounding landscape are visible in the background, with mountains in the distance.

Wake up to MALAHIDE

Mabestown Wood is situated beside the bustling North Dublin coastal town of Malahide, widely regarded as one of the capital's most prestigious locations. With the beautiful parklands of Malahide Castle on one side and the Dublin coast on the other, Mabestown Wood residents can enjoy the best of both worlds – all within walking distance.

A Bustling Village BRIMMING WITH LIFE

Malahide is one of North Dublin's most popular locations for shopping, dining, socialising and entertaining. The town is packed with well-established independent shops and boutiques, making it a mecca for fashion lovers.

Keen cooks will also enjoy the array of gourmet stores, delicatessens, regular farmers' markets and artisan food producers all in abundance in this bustling location. The Grand Hotel offers an unrivalled coastal setting for dining and relaxation overlooking the Malahide Estuary.

At night, it's time to get together with family and friends and enjoy an active social life. Malahide is fast gaining a reputation as the gourmet capital of the east coast, with something to suit every palate. Alternatively, enjoy drinks and live music at Gibney's or one of the other busy bars – you will never be bored in Malahide.

Life outdoors FOR ALL INTERESTS

Malahide is home to one of Dublin's most beautiful stretches of coastline, perfect for morning swims, coastal jogs, and evening strolls by the sea. The picturesque marina adds to its charm, offering sailing opportunities for all to enjoy. The Malahide Sea Scouts offers young people lessons in boating and canoeing, inspiring a love of adventure on the water. The village also has a strong sporting tradition, with clubs to suit every interest and age. St. Sylvester's GAA, Malahide Cricket Club, and Malahide United are at the heart of the community, while the Malahide Tennis Club provides excellent facilities for players of all levels. Together, these clubs reflect the vibrant, community-focused energy that defines life in Malahide.

Step Back in Time

STROLL THROUGH HISTORY

Mabestown Wood is located next to the historic Malahide Castle, a magnificent medieval castle with a dramatic 800 year heritage. Take a tour of the castle's interiors and hear fascinating stories of the Talbot family and their contribution to Irish history. Enjoy the incredible 260 acres of parkland, which includes a fairy trail, butterfly house, Avoca market and restaurant, and arguably North Dublin's best playground! Malahide Castle is a renowned venue for summer concerts, attracting world-class artists and music lovers to its scenic parklands each year.
