Site

A planning permission (Donegal Ref :2050056) was granted for a standalone detached property on about 2.4 acres which would have the benefit of a panoramic sea view and direct access to the beach. This planning has expired but there is an application currently working through the planning process to renew same. The asking price of the site is €500,000 and is separate to the €1,600,000 asking price for the Fort Royal.

There is also planning permission in place to knock down the dining room extension to restore the original front façade and to convert the toilet/store to a living room.
