About this property

Standing on a secluded two-acre site yet within a short stroll of the pretty town of Castlecomer, Donaguile House, dating from c. 1839 is a stunning example of Victorian style and elegance. The six bed house is immaculately presented, featuring extensive accommodation, including three reception rooms, a large kitchen/breakfast room, a stunning orangery overlooking the rear courtyard and a games room. The property also benefits from a two-bedroom separate self-contained cottage ideal for guests, staff or as a rental property.

Donaguile House is close to 200 years old. It originally formed part of the extensive 'Wandesforde' Estate. The interior has a calm and elegant charm with soft heritage colours, original artworks on all of the walls and an eclectic mix of antique and contemporary furniture. The interior featured in '25 Beautiful Homes' (UK) and in 'Ireland's Home Interiors and Living' 2018. To the front of the property there is ample private parking. The grounds and gardens have been beautifully designed and well planted. The walled garden has raised beds for growing vegetables and lovely mature fruit trees, ideal for anyone looking to become self-sufficient.
